

FoHA Publications & DVDs

Discover Stoke Newington	£3.95 + £1.00 postage
Discover De Beauvoir Town	£1.00 + £1.00 postage
Historic Hackney Walk	£1.00 + £1.00 postage
DVDs	£6.95 + £2.00 postage
Church St.
Four Hackney Houses
Stoke Newington

Hackney History 18 editions have been published, copies of nos 7 to 18 are still available.	£4.00 each + £2.00 postage
---	----------------------------

The Terrier Back copies of our newsletter, nos 61-90, are available	£1.00 each, 3 for £2.00 + £1.00 postage
---	--

All the above can be purchased by post from the Friends of Hackney Archives,
c/o Hackney Archives, Dalston CLR James Library and Hackney Archives, Dalston Square, London E8 3BQ

Please make cheques payable to 'The Friends of Hackney Archives'

Or by Bank Transfer to Account No.: 01210815 Sort Code: 40-02-17

Friends of Hackney Archives Publications Order Form

No	Publication	Price	Postage
	Discover Stoke Newington	£3.95	£1.00
	Discover De Beauvoir Town	£1.00	£1.00
	Historic Hackney Walk	£1.00	£1.00
	DVDs	£6.95	£2.00
	Church St.
	Four Hackney Houses
	Stoke Newington

Hackney History	Volume nos.:	£4.00 each	£2.00
------------------------	--------------	------------	-------

The Terrier newsletter	£1.00 each, 3 for £2.00	£1.00
-------------------------------	-------------------------	-------

Totals	Publications	Postage
	£	£

Post to:

the Friends of Hackney Archives,
c/o Hackney Archives, Dalston CLR James Library and Hackney Archives, Dalston Square, London E8 3BQ

Please make cheques payable to 'The Friends of Hackney Archives'
[or bank transfer]

Hackney History Contents List

Vol.	Hackney History
7 2001	Bishop Thomas Wood of Hackney and Lichfield - Curtain Road gasworks - early athletics at Hackney Wick - Bretts, millers of Homerton - Dr Jelley, the 'threepenny doctor'
9 2003	Excavating medieval Hoxton –Hackney Working Men's Club – poor law in Hackney c.1900 – the Hoxton furniture trade – a street-sweeper extraordinaire – Stoke Newington's Lancaster bomber
10 2004	The Daniel Defoe collection – female emigration to Australia – patients in Hackney Workhouse infirmary – people and places represented in fiction
11 2005	Early dissenting academies – the Clapton Square area in the 17 th and 18 th centuries – the Norris family, their apprentices and servants in the 18 th and early 19 th centuries – the first generation of flats – the flu pandemic of 1918-19
12 2006	195 Mare Street – 19 th century public house tokens and their makers – the Standard theatre in the 1870s – a Shoreditch slum – inter-war 'working class theatre'
13 2007	An 18 th century bibliophile – Quaker apothecaries – cholera in Hackney in the 19 th century – Harper Twelvetrees, industrialist philanthropist and campaigner – post-war council housing in Shoreditch
14 2008	Newcome's school – Pennington, actor and war hero – Quakers in Stoke Newington, 19 th and 20 th centuries - Victorian Turkish Baths – the Homerton H-O-G – the Lee Valley Park
15 2009	'Lives of the convicts': a puzzle in printing – electricity generation and waste disposal in Shoreditch – mayors' medals for children – Elizabeth and Mark Wilks, suffrage campaigners – post-war cycle speedway – Hackney Borough Council's post-WW2 flat-building
16 2010	Moneys in the Mint from Hackney and Shoreditch – Pond House and its scandalous builder – a history of Hoxton Hall –William Walsham How, the first bishop for East London – the gentrification of Broadway Market
17 2013	The earliest trade tokens for Hackney, Shoreditch and Stoke Newington – a Victorian doctor with controversial views – the mysterious disappearance of a Lower Clapton clergyman – decoding the burial registers for Abney Park – buried treasure and the story of the family who buried it
18 2014	How Stoke Newington laid claim to early grandees – Shoreditch Church's famous bells - mid-19 th century middle class families of Stamford Hill – physical resistance to the Salvation Army – Laburnum Street School, from foundation to closure